Dear Mr. Ben-David:

Thank you for your recent visit to Tbilisi.

As a result of our discussions, the Government of Georgia requests that you and your associates explore the possibilities of obtaining American funding for the protection of military bases, arsenals, and sensitive areas that may contain dangerous substances. The protection of these facilities is essential so that we can prevent materiel from falling into terrorist hands.

We would also appreciate your efforts to bring to the attention of American leaders and opinion-makers our country's close cooperation with and high regard for the United States.

We understand that these services involve your registering with the U.S. Department of Justice under the Foreign Agent Registration Act. You are authorized to register on our behalf.

Sincerely,

Tedo Japaridze
